In Memory of

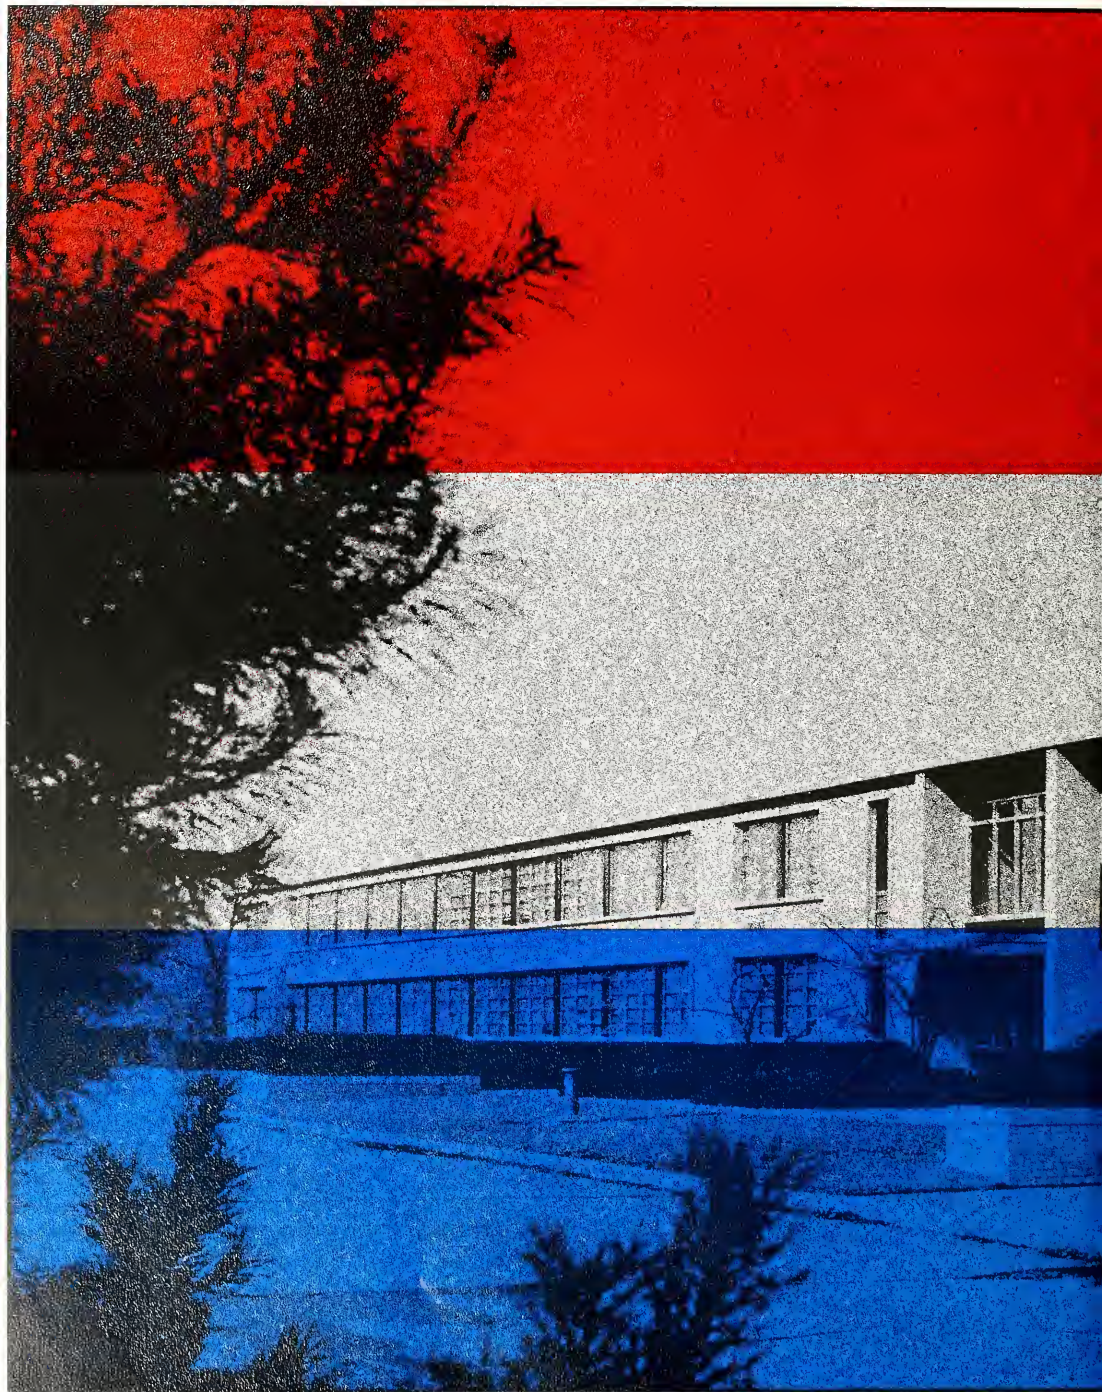

Roy Carson

*Rest ye in peace, thy labors o'er--
Many ye served as best ye knew,
Touching them all with love and strength;
Of self ye gave--well done, good friend!*

*Rest ye in peace, thy labors o'er---
To all ye gave new hope and light
To face life's tasks with faith in self--
Those whom ye led shall count ye blessed.*

-Stephen W. Koziar

ADMINISTRATION

Lloyd A. Harrison
Superintendent

What is a Superintendent?

He should be;
A man's man, a ladies man,
A model husband, a fatherly father, a good provider.

A Diplomat;
A Democrat, a Republican
A New Dealer, an Old Dealer and a Fast Dealer
A before dinner mixer, and an after dinner speaker.

He should be a;
Doctor, Lawyer, Business Manager
Maintenance Man, Teacher, Public Relations Man and
Have a photographic memory for all,
Residents, Parents, Employees, Legislators, Community leaders

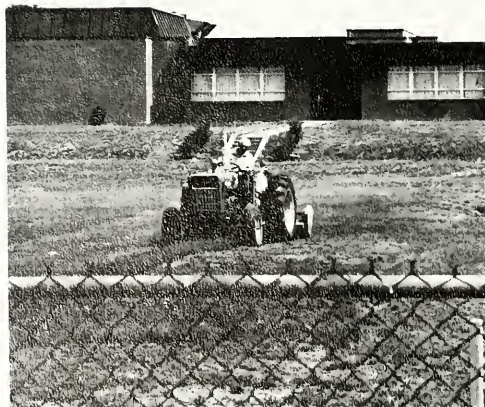

And it helps if he is fast on his feet
To present a moving target.

He should attend all;
Staff conferences, clinical meetings.
Union meetings and dog fights.

He needs the;
Diplomacy of an Ambassador.
The knowledge of a computer,
The agility of a tight-wire walker,
and
Must be able to leap red tape in a single bound.

It helps if he learns to like milk –
For the treatment of his ulcers.

GRADUATION SONG

O M.S.D.! Dear M.S.D.!
Our home these many years—
Within thy walls among thy halls
We've had our fun and tears;
As little tots, rent of home-knots,
With minds unreached we came;
And some did squall, but we recall
How each soon learned his name!

O M.S.D.! Dear M.S.D.!
Kind guardian through our stay—
We forged ahead, how fast time sped
As scaled we up the way!
We met setbacks along our tracks,
Nor strayed we from our aim;
On court and field we would not yield—
We strove to swell thy fame.

O M.S.D.! Dear M.S.D.!
For aye our hallowed shrine—
Tomorrow morn when day is born
We'll leave these halls of thine,
But with us take nor e'er forsake
The friends that we here claim:
And as we strive, we so shall live
To glorify thy name!
